RURAL WOMEN'S SUPPORT COUNSELLOR
November 2022 - February 28, 2023 (with possibility of extension)
CONTRACT - 32 hours per week

Guelph-Wellington Women in Crisis (G-W WIC) is a dynamic, community-based, not for profit, feminist organization providing services to women and their children who have experienced domestic and/or sexual violence and human trafficking in Guelph and Wellington County.

We are looking for a highly motivated social worker with the skills and abilities to provide supportive counselling to women who have experienced gender-based violence in Wellington County. If you are self-directed with the ability to work effectively within a team environment, are compassionate, creative and resourceful, please consider this opportunity in our Fergus office.

Responsibilities include:

- Providing individual short-term supportive counselling & crisis intervention services. (virtual & in-person)
- Providing assistance with navigation through various systems and documentation (i.e. housing, OW, ODSP, legal systems, F&CS, etc.).
- Case conferencing, support coordination and advocacy.
- Risk assessment, safety planning and transitional planning.
- Providing accompaniment as required.
- Providing options, referrals and connections to women and community resources as needed.
- Crisis intervention and de-escalation skills.
- Co-facilitating/debriefing open or closed support groups or workshops for women who have experienced gender-based violence.

The successful candidate will have:

- Bachelor of Social Work (preferred) or equivalent with a counselling focus.
- Minimum 3 years' experience working with and advocating for women and children who are victims of sexual violence and woman abuse.
- Training in sexual violence counselling, including childhood sexual abuse issues and Human Trafficking.
- Trauma informed with advanced knowledge of mental health and substance abuse issues.
- Administration / organizational skills with strong computer competency.
- Experience working in a rural culture and dealing with the additional barriers abused women and their children face in a rural environment.
- Access to a vehicle is necessary to support county clients.
- Fully vaccinated for Covid-19.

Closing Date: Wednesday, November 23rd, 2022 at 5:00 pm

Please send your cover letter & resume to jacinta@gwwomenincrisis.org

If you require an accommodation under the Ontario Human Rights Code in order to participate in the recruitment process, please contact Jacinta Cassidy at (519) 843-6834 ext. 421.

Guelph-Wellington Women in Crisis is committed to diversity and inclusion and in keeping with this principle, we encourage Indigenous women, immigrant women, women of colour, women with disabilities, lesbians and trans* people to apply.

Trans people are all people who identify as trans, non-binary, gender fluid and gender non-conforming.*

We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted. No telephone calls or other enquiries please.

You don't have to be hit to be hurt. • You don't have to leave to get help. • You don't have to be in crisis to call.
